What's Going On

The Basics

The Rocky Mountain Oyster Fry is returning to Virginia City, featuring both amateur and professional cooks with their special recipes for Rocky Mountain Oysters (beef testicles, often referred to as beef fries). This will be the largest Oyster Fry on record. With over 3,000 attendees, this festival is an opportunity to showcase your skills and cooking abilities to a new crowd.

The Details

The event will take place Saturday, March 14th, 2026 from 10:00AM to 4:00PM in the heart of Downtown Virginia City.

The Fun

There will be many fun and family-friendly activities throughout the day including the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade on "C" Street at noon. There will be music, costume contests, tastings of the contestant's recipes, living legends, a People's Choice Award for the crowd favorite, and all the Irish shenanigans that one can handle!

It's time to get creative! Not only will you work to come up with a winning dish, but you and your team have the opportunity to go all out with quirky costumes, team names, fun themed decorations, and a lively atmosphere! Attendees love unique booths, so don't hesitate to jump in and liven it up to your fullest Irish extent!

35th Annual Rocky Mountain Oyster Fry Official Rules - Sat. March 14, 2026

1. Competition is open to everyone, however booth/team leads must be 18 years of age or older.
2. Contestants must complete the Official Application form and submit the completed form no later than 2/13/2026.
3. Contestants participate in this event at their own risk. Event Management is not responsible for injuries or loss of property.
4. The purpose of this event is to solicit cooks (amateur or professional) to showcase their own recipes when preparing "beef fries" and to enter their dishes for judging to be considered for awards.
5. Cooks will be given as many pounds of "fries" (beef testicles) as needed. It is up to the discretion of the cooks as to the taste, preparation, and presentation of the product, provided that the "fries" are the main component of the dish.
6. The product can be prepped prior to event, but cooked onsite only. Make as much as you can to be sampled, but 500 samples is the minimum requirement. 800? 1,000? 1,200?...How many do you think you can serve?
7. Cooks may only use the "beef fries" that are provided by Management. Cooks must pick up their requested quantity at The Bucket of Blood on C St., Virginia City, (during normal business hours) the week of the event (special deliveries may be coordinated with Management).
8. Cooks acknowledge that once the product is ordered they will be responsible for the cost of their ordered product and any restocking fees should they withdraw their attendance at the event or fail to show.
9. You may prepare your spices ahead of time.
10. Stoves or cooking apparatuses may not be turned on until 6:00AM, Sat., March 14th (day of event). A secret panel of judges will visit each booth beginning at 10:30AM. The awards ceremony will take place at around 4:00PM. NOTE: The annual St. Patrick's Day Parade is scheduled at Noon.
11. Management will visit all booths individually the morning of the event between 8 and 9 am to review final rules and schedules. Please ensure that the Team Lead is present at the booth during this time.
12. Teams are responsible for supplying everything needed for set up, cooking, serving, etc. Teams must provide their own tent along with proper tent security/tiedown. There is no electricity available for cooks, so you will have to use & provide your own propane, charcoal, etc. Teams are responsible for proper trash disposal and clean up afterwards. Teams must have proper food safe-handling materials in order to serve to the public (gloves, paper or plastic utensils, tongs, cups, etc.). Teams must have a hand washing station in their booth!! (Spouted jug of water, soap, towels, etc.). It's all about being health and safety conscious! The Health Dept. WILL INSPECT your booth!
13. Teams may setup their booths (decorations, tables, etc.) in the event area beginning no earlier than 6:00AM the morning of the event, AND must be completely removed from the area by 6:00PM. No overnight stays. Vehicles must be removed from the area by 8:00AM pre-event. Booths may NOT be torn down before 3:00PM. We appreciate your cooperation on this!
14. Entries are judged (by designated judges) based on a point system. Judges' decisions are final. The following categories of judging will take place: Best Overall Taste "Professional" and "Amateur", Most Creative Dish, Biggest Ball Slinger, Best Team Name, and Brandi Lee's People's Choice.
15. No alcohol may be served to the public by entrants. Drinks of any kind may NOT be sold to the public by entrants.
16. Cooks may offer tastings/samples to the general public as soon as their products are ready for serving. Sampling will be put on hold for the parade (Noon-12:30pm-for those located on C Street). Tasting tickets will be sold by event Management to the general public. Tasters must redeem these tickets at team booths. Team booths may not accept cash for sampling transactions. Teams who violate this rule will be automatically disqualified from the contest and will not receive redemption or guaranteed cash payouts or any subsequent awards.
17. Vendor/Cook agrees to indemnify, save and hold the VCTC, Storey County, and Liquid Blue Events, their agents and employees harmless from any and all claims, causes of action or liability arising from the performance of exhibition under this agreement by Vendor/Cooks or Vendor/Cook's agents or employees.
18. For more information contact: Liquid Blue Events - 748 S. Meadows Pkwy Ste A9-275, Reno, NV 89521 or email team@liquidblueevents.com. Event Management reserves all rights. Call or write with any questions. 775-851-4444
